Call to Worship - from Psalm 146:1-2, 5-10

Leader: Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord, O my soul!

People: I will praise the Lord as long as I live;

I will sing praises to my God all my life long.

Leader: Blessed are those whose help is the God of Jacob,
who made heaven and earth, the sea,
and all that is in them.

People: Blessed are those who executes justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.

Leader: The Lord sets prisoners free and lifts up those who are bowed down.

People: The Lord watches over the stranger and upholds the orphan and the widow.

The Lord will reign forever. Praise the Lord!

Prayer of the Day (in unison)

Loving God, as we worship you today, take our hard hearts in your hands and make us soft and pliable as clay so that we may respond to the call of your Spirit.

Touch our hearts, touch our minds, touch our strength, and show us the way forward. Where our witness grows stale, renew us. Where our long-ingrained habits and traditions inhibit us, break us free for joyful celebration.

Remind us that the legacy of faith we have inherited is not meant to be displayed in a museum, but used as a guide for our own faith journey so that we may leave a legacy for those who follow us.

In the name of Jesus the Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit, we pray. Amen.

Rev. Kirk Tutterow

Worshipping with our Tithes, Offerings, and Our Commitment

We give thanks for all that God has already given us.

As members of the body of Christ

and in this congregation of the United Methodist Church, we will faithfully participate in the ministries of the church by
our prayers, our presence,
our gifts, our service, and our witness,
that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

A Covenant Prayer In the Wesleyan Tradition

I am no longer my own, but thine.

Put me to what thou wilt,

rank me with whom thou wilt.

Put me to doing, put me to suffering.

Let me be employed by thee or laid aside for thee,
exalted for thee or brought low by thee.

Let me have all things, let me have nothing.

I freely and heartily yield all things to thy pleasure and disposal.

And now, O glorious and blessed God,

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

thou art mine and I am thine. So be it.

And the covenant which I have made on earth,
let it be ratified in heaven. Amen.

Sermon Notes:

The Sparrow Project is a central registry of folks who are willing to offer their services to help you short term in case of an emergency, illness, or surgery. The types of tasks we are able to help you with are: picking up groceries or prescriptions, running an errand, transportation to and from appointments, simple household repairs like replacing a light bulb, temporary meal preparation, computer help.

If you need help, all you have to do is call Lauren Hall (336) 239-0860 or the church office (336) 248-2886. It's that simple. You let us know what you need and we will take it from there. We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity.

Announcements

Remember to visit our website www.fumclex.org or join our Tuesday Ties (That Bind) & Friday Wrap Up weekly emails through Constant Contact to stay connected with the latest news, calendar updates, recorded worship services, bulletin, and newsletter.

United Methodist Women Poinsettia Sale

Be sure to order early! Order forms are located in the bulletin and on our website.

Godly Play Is Here! Beginning on Sunday, November 28, we invite all children (Kindergarten thru Third Grade) to experience our new Godly Play children's church curriculum! The children will need to leave the church service a bit earlier than they have in the past—joining Amanda or another Godly Play leader at the back of the church during the opening hymn. For this reason we will no longer have a "Children's Time" during the worship service—instead, the children will hear their story in the Godly Play classroom, which has been designed specifically for this purpose.

Children & Family Advent Fair November 28 (2:00—4:00 p.m.)

Join us in the Fellowship Hall for a celebration of all things Advent, including an introduction to our new Godly Play program. We will make Advent wreaths, hear a Godly Play story, and enjoy fun games and Christmas treats. Each family will also receive an Advent devotional kit to use during Advent, Christmas and Epiphany.

Do You Hear What I Hear? The Chancel Choir and Bells are preparing for the season of Advent on Wednesday evenings in the Fellowship Hall. They are returning to worship soon! Are you ready? Here they come!

If you need a commitment survey or an estimate of giving card, extra packets are available from the ushers at the back of the sanctuary. Please return completed surveys and cards to the church office. Thank you for participating!
